Loss of future financial aid eligibility

If you owe a repayment of grant funds and do not immediately repay, you will lose your financial aid eligibility. All amounts owing are reported to the Department of Education within 45 days of your withdrawal date.

Repayment of Tuition and Fess

If Title IV funds or State Need Grant paid for your tuition and fees or you picked up a grant or loan check, and unearned funds are returned to the federal government, you will be responsible for paying the balance of your tuition.

For example, if Pell Grant paid $592 for your tuition and fees and you withdraw on the tenth day of the quarter, BCC returns $515 of unearned aid to the Pell program. BCC keeps $77 of tuition and fees charges. BCC's refund policy is applied to determine how much you owe the college for the time you attended. In this case, you have withdrawn at the 50% refund tuition period and will be treated as a student who is paying for his or her own tuition. If you had paid for your own tuition, you would receive a refund of 50% ( $$592 \times 50\%$ ) or $296, and the college would keep 50% of the tuition or $296. As a result, you would owe $296 minus whatever amount, if any, BCC kept when the Refund of Title IV Funds calculation was made. In this case, BCC kept $77, therefore, you would owe $219 ( $$296 - $77 = $219$ ).

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact BCC's Financial Aid Office immediately.

If your last day of attendance occurs on the dates indicated below, you will have earned 100% of your Title IV aid.

Return of Title IV and State Need Grant Funds

Title IV and State Grant recipients, who withdraw from the institution, are expelled, or otherwise complete zero credits in any given term, must repay the unearned funds on a prorated basis. The Financial Aid Office is required to determine whether any financial aid funds need to be returned to the federal and State governments. This may result in your having to repay your financial aid and/or owing a partial tuition payment to Bellevue College.

If your last day of attendance occurs on the dates indicated below, you will have earned 100% of your financial aid and will not need to repay anything.
